Proposed Recipient of Honorary Degree for
UDC's Spring Commencement, May 12, 2018

Harry E. Johnson, Sr.
Chief Executive Officer and President
Friends of the Memorial Foundation, Inc.

Mr. Johnson is being recognized for his accomplishments as lawyer, entrepreneur, public servant, and most importantly for his outstanding leadership as the former President and CEO of the MLK Memorial Foundation, Inc., which erected the historic national monument honoring the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Despite controversy and challenges, Johnson remained a calm, focused and inspirational force, raising more than $100 million to complete the memorial.

Johnson is a small business owner who has dedicated his life and time to serving the community, including civil rights, health education and youth mentoring. His commitment to public service, grounded in education and experience, along with his vision and leadership, serves as an outstanding example and source of inspiration for the University's students, no matter what their field of study. For representing UDC's values so well, we are proud to honor his achievements.

Harry E. Johnson, Sr. is the President and CEO of the Friends of the Memorial Foundation, Inc. and previously served as President and CEO of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Foundation, Inc. More than anyone else, he is widely considered as "the man behind the monument."

Under Johnson's leadership, the MLK Memorial Foundation raised $112 million of the $120 million needed to erect the memorial. He guided a small team of architects and accountants from design to completion.

Johnson is a career lawyer and also a Partner at the Law Office of Glenn and Johnson. He has previously served as City Attorney for Kendelton, Texas, and taught at Texas Southern University in the Thurgood Marshall School of Law and School of Public Affairs. Johnson is also a small business owner who has dedicated his time to community groups and issues, such as voter registration, blood donations, HIV/AIDS education, Boy Scouts of America and Big Brothers.

Johnson has served as National President of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, the fraternity to which Dr. King belonged, and is credited with enhancing the national image of the organization among fraternity members, business leaders and political officials.

Johnson received his Doctor of Jurisprudence from Texas Southern University where he was a member of the Thurgood Marshall Student Bar Association. He completed Post Baccalaureate work in Public Administration at St. Louis University and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Xavier University in Louisiana.

Johnson has received a number of recognitions for his public service, including awards from the Congressional Black Caucus, 100 Black Men of America, Inc., and the NAACP. He has consistently been named as one of Ebony Magazine's "100 Most Influential Black Americans."
